

Embrace of Aging: The Female Perspective of Growing Old

Posted on August 08, 2014 by blueadmin

RESERVE YOUR TICKETS TODAY!

The Ann Arbor premiere of filmmaker Keith Famie's documentary

The Embrace of Aging

The female perspective of growing old

Co-Executive Producers: Russell Ebeid and Thomas Rau

THE MICHIGAN THEATER

603 E Liberty St, Ann Arbor, MI 48104

Sunday, September 7, 2014

6:00 p.m.

Cost: $30

To purchase tickets, please visit www.ticketweb.com and search "Embrace of Aging"

A must-see for men, too!

"The sixteen months of filming captured the lives of women from the countryside of Provence to the small villages of Okinawa to the mountaintops in Jackson Hole, Wyoming to the bedside of local breast cancer patients. You'll laugh, cry and be inspired."

This evening will also feature:

Dr. Cathy Lysack, Ph.D., OT(C)

Former Deputy Director of the Institute of Gerontology at Wayne State University

Movie Screening & Performance by Jill Jack and the Detroit Women's Project

This event will support the Blueprint For Aging

The Blueprint for Aging is thrilled to be presenting the Ann Arbor premiere of The Embrace of Aging: the Female Perspective of Growing Old at 6:00 p.m. Sunday, September 7 at Ann Arbor's historic Michigan Theater. This one event will touch the hearts and minds of multiple generations and interest groups.

The evening will begin with a powerful program that includes film introduction by ten-time Michigan Emmy Award Winning producer Keith Famie, words by Dr. Eva Feldman, MD, Russell N. DeJong Professor of Neurology and Director of the A. Alfred Taubman Medical Research Institute at the University of Michigan Medical School, music by renowned singer-songwriter Jill Jack and the Detroit Women's Project, followed by the film premiere.

To purchase tickets, please visit www.ticketweb.com and search "Embrace of Aging".

For more information about sponsoring the event, please contact Emily Fogelsonger at efogelsonger@csswashtenaw.org or 734-971-9781 ext. 374.

Posted in:Uncategorized | | With 0 comments

---